ALMA MATER

I

Hark, the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear!
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark upon the gale.
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—Hail!

II

Iron-shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by:
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

III

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out of hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

IV

God, our Father, hear our voices.
Listen to our cry:
Bless the College of our Fathers.
Never let her die.

DR. HENRY HORACE HIBBS, JR.

Dean of the School of Social Work and Public Health and Director of the Richmond Division of the College

In the WIGWAM of 1937 we have tried to crystallize the spirit of youth by employing it as the theme. Because of his unfailing interest in the welfare of the students and the school, we dedicate it to Dr. Henry Horace Hibbs. In the following pages youth is concertized in various attitudes.

Will the youth of our generation remain stationary as,

Fair youth, beneath the tree, thou canst not leave
Thy song nor ever can these trees be bare?

If we are not so fortunate as that figure on the Grecian urn, we can, in years to come, cherish the ideals of youth and observe a tolerance toward its aspirations.

LOOKING WEST FROM 9TH AND MAIN STREETS ABOUT 1876

SINCE 1876 . . .

this firm has been located in the neighborhood pictured above. Just as the automobile has replaced the horse and buggy, just as the dirt street has been replaced by pavement . . so have printing processes improved. Today customers demand the best . . just as they did in 1876. We have kept pace with the times, ever striving to have our product reflect the modern trends which render the printed page more readable and more effective.
